Preface.

There comes into the life of nearly every man a time when he begins to realize that there is a future which lies before him and for the success of which he is in part responsible. In considering the future he must relate it to the present and to the past, for on the foundations of the past much of the strength of the future depends. In the same manner a person becomes interested in the past history of his family and at such a time he begins to collect from the older members of his family such facts as may connect the past with the present and give him information concerning the character and life of those ancestors to whose parental care he owes his existence. At this time too, the thought of having a genealogy of his family appeals to him and if he cannot buy one, the only course open to him is to compile one. In the compilation of such a book many a man is content with a history of his own family and his ancestors in a direct line back as far as it is possible to obtain information concerning them. The compiler of the present work was less selfish in his motives and went farther in the endeavor to relate all people in America who bore the name "Nye".

The original purpose of this compiler, then, was to include all the descendants of Benjamin Nye who was the first of the name to settle in America. But it was impossible to accomplish this since many people were not interested in a genealogy and either ignored the repeated requests sent to them asking for data regarding their family or absolutely refused to give the information sought. This, of course, made it impossible to get the names of a large number who might have been interested, and willing and anxious to assist. More than this many of the older members of the family whose names were not known to the compilers, but whose memory served as a connecting link between the past and the present have died and with these deaths much valuable information has been lost.

In offering this book to the public then, it is not intended that it shall be taken as a complete genealogy of the Nye Family but as a collection of valuable information carrying the Nye Family back in a connected line for about seven hundred years and enabling all who have any information of their own whether published in the book or not to connect their line back to that time.

The compilation of this work was first commenced by Mr. George H. Nye of Auburn, N. Y. He sent out many letters of inquiry and the response to these was so great and so rapid that the task of arranging the material thus obtained was more than he could do with his other business duties. He therefore employed Mr. Frank E. Best, a professional genealogist, of Chicago to take what material he already had, to obtain more and arrange the whole into such shape that it could be published. The European history was obtained and the line was completed from the time that the name originated to the present.

All this necessarily involved a large expenditure of money and many years of work and Mr. Nye was about to let the book stand as it was, when in 1903 the Nye Family of America held its First Reunion at Sandwich, Mass. The interest and enthusiasm of that reunion was such that he was prompted to give the manuscript to the association there formed, which he did at the second reunion with the request that it be published. A committee on publication was appointed but they accomplished very little. However, in the summer of 1906 that committee composed of Henry Alden Belcher of Randolph, Mass., George H. Nye of Auburn, N. Y. and David J. Nye of Elyria, Ohio, and seven others, William F. Nye of New Bedford, Mass., Allen T. Nye of Boston, Mass., James L. Wesson of Boston, Mass., Elmer I. Nye of East Georgia, Vt., Charles W. Parker of Boston, Mass., Mrs. Harriet Nye Towne of Chillicothe, Ohio, and Fremont Nye of Westerly, R. I., volunteered to be responsible for any expense connected with the publication of the work. This assured the publication of the book and much credit is due to these ten Members of the Association who have made it possible to place in more permanent form, records which otherwise might always have remained in manuscript and have been inaccessible to the majority of American Nyes.

The editor wishes to acknowledge the kindness of Mrs. S. Curtis Smith of Newton, Mass., Secretary of the Nye Family of America Association in giving the use of her very valuable mailing list, in making many suggestions which have been of great assistance in completing the book and for her aid in obtaining pictures to be used as illustrations. Mr. George M. Emmons of Russell, Mass., is deserving of many thanks for the chart of the "Blandford Nyes" which he so kindly furnished and which has been inserted in the book. The editor is also under great obligations to the many persons who have so recently sent information, corrections and additions which when placed in the manuscript have increased in great degree its accuracy. Both the Nye Family of America Association and the editor are very grateful to all who subscribed for copies of the book in advance, since the liberal number of these subscriptions have enabled us to make the book more attractive than was at first contemplated.

DAVID F. NYE.

Foreword.

Any Genealogy is necessarily imperfect, births, marriages and deaths are constantly occurring, while change of residence breaks many a link in the ancestral chain, and causes in consequence many a disappointment. The reader should then discard in advance any idea that the present work differs in that respect from any other of its kind. What may then be expected in this book is that those seeking information concerning their ancestry may hope to obtain for a moderate outlay what could otherwise be secured only at great cost. This information has been gathered through researches of many years, and at a large expenditure of time and money.

The Danish and English matter is taken from the records, references being given in every instance, while the American data were tabulated and completed by Mr. Frank E. Best. That errors should occur in such a number of transcripts is also to be expected, verifications of the Bible and other records from which the information was obtained being impossible. With the above explanation no further apologies are needed. The reader is now placed in possession of records which it is hoped will enable him to complete his own line of descent, and be an incentive to its accurate keeping in the future.

The Nyes in Europe.

DENMARK

The name Nye as a family name made its first appearance about the middle of the thirteenth century in the Sjælland Section of Denmark. At that time there were great internal uprisings in Sweden and many of the Swedes fled to adjoining countries to escape the dangers which threatened them at home. These people settled in little communities throughout Denmark and we find traces of their settlements in such compound names as Ny-borg, Ny-stead, and of other towns named after their Swedish homes; in like manner to the naming of New Amsterdam by the Dutch settlers in America; the prefix Ny in the Danish language, meaning new or new comer.

In the adoption of surnames which hitherto had been practically unknown they employed much the same method. Great confusion often resulted from the lack of a surname and so to distinguish a man he was given a surname which suggested itself from some characteristic of the man, as for instance a trade or occupation, such as Baker, Carpenter, or Gardener, often his figure made the necessary suggestion, as Broad, Short, or Tallman; or the simple addition of son, as Johnson, Williamson or Robinson.

And so one of these emigrants from Sweden was given by the inhabitants of his new country the name Nye or New-comer.

For the ancestry of this man we must look to the traditional history of Denmark. There are several stories of his origin but one will be sufficient to give us a point from which we may start. This tradition tells us that about the middle of the thirteenth century a person came and settled in Fredericksborg Bailiwick and Slangstrup Parish in the Sjælland Section of Denmark. There was a rumor that he was the descendant of Harold Blautand, who died in 985, through his daughter, who married one of the most famous of the Swedish heroes, Styribiorn, son of Olaf, King of Sweden.

LAVE NYE was a son of this descendant of the royal house of Sweden and is the first whose name appears on record. He became a man of great prominence and in 1316 was Bishop of Roskilde in the Sjelland Section. (Lexicon over Adelige Familier in Danmark, Norge og Hertogdommene).

SVEN NYE is mentioned in 1346 as the heir of his father, the Bishop of Roskilde. (Danske Arkive). In 1363 he had in Tudse, Holbeck Bailiwick, Sjelland Section a grant of land. (Lands Kontorets Annaler) He probably died the same year, since his son, MARTEN NYE was in that year declared heir of his father in Tudse. (Historia Sjellandia Vol. I, p. 68).

NILS NYE was a son of Marten Nye and in 1418 is mentioned in the Landnamabok as possessing land in Tudse, which he then deeded to his son.

BERTOLF NYE is mentioned in 1466 as the son of Nils Nye of Tudse (Necrologium Daniae Vetus). Bertolf had two sons James and Randolph. James had a duel with Tostig, son of Gytha, (Annales Daniae III, 135), from the consequences of which he fled to England accompanied by his younger brother Randolph and settled in Wiltshire, afterward removing to Hampshire.

ENGLAND.

RANDOLF NYE settled in Sussex in 1527. He is mentioned in the Rolls as excusing himself on account of illness from attendance at the Assize held at Lewes. (Coram Rege Roll, 20 Hen. V^{III}). He held land in Uckfield, County Sussex (Rotuli Hundredorum 33 Hen. VIII). He had one son, William who is mentioned in Coram Rege Roll as the inheritor of his father, Randolph of Uckfield.

WILLIAM NYE, son of Randolf, married Agnes, daughter of Ralph Tregian of Ballancé-Hornéd, County Hertford. William studied for the ministry and became Rector of the Parish Church of Ballancé-Hornéd before his father's death. (26 Hen. VIII. 1534 also History of Hertfordshire Vol. I, p. 274). In 2 Edw. VI, 1548-9 we read that he claimed the land which his father who had evidently died the year before had "given unto him" in Uckfield "to have and to hold to them and to the heirs male of the said William his son, and in default of such issue male then the said premises to be given to the Parish Church". (Town Depositions Chancery 2 Edw. VI). As there are no other references to William Nye, except a mention of his name in 1556, when his son Ralph was served heir to his father, it must be inferred that he led a quiet and uneventful life.

RALPH NYE, son of William, became heir to his father in Uckfield and Balancé in 1556. This date also fixes the date for the death of his father. (Retour, 117). He married June 18, 1555, Margaret Merynge of St. Mary, Woolchurch. (Marriage Licenses of the Bishop of London, B.) He had five children who are mentioned in Inquisitiones Post Mortem:

- i Thomas.
- ii Edmundus, who while he was quite young went into Somersetshire, died there and was buried in Wedmore Church March 9, 1594. (St. James Parish Register & Wedmore Parish Register).
- iii Ralph, married Joan Wilkshire, August 30, 1584. (Wedmore Parish Register).
- iv Anne, married Nich. Stuart August 6, 1616.
- v Mary, married John Banister April 24, 1621. (St. Saviours, Southwark Parish Register).

THOMAS NYE, son of Ralph and Margaret (Merynge) Nye, married September 9, 1583, at St. Andrew, Hubbard, Katherine Poulsden of London. She was a daughter of the late Mr. Poulsden of Horley, County Surrey. (Marriage Licenses Bishop of London Court). He bargained and sold to William Poulsden of the same Parish, yeoman, his wife's brother, a messuage or tenement builded with a croft adjoining, containing sixteen acres in Bidlenden, County Kent. (Clerk of the Peace Rolls). William Poulsden then granted to Thomas Nye an annuity of four shillings arising from the said lands. Ralph Nye was executor of his father's estate in 1584. (Proceedings Court of Claims). Their Children were:

- i Henry, matriculated at Oxford University, November 24, 1609, at the age of twenty years. He received his degree, Bachelor of Arts, June 12, 1611. In 1615 he was Vicar of Cobham, Surrey. He was Rector of Clapham Sussex in 1630. (Alumni Oxoniensis "et sequitur"). His son, John, matriculated at Oxford, December 12, 1634, aged fourteen years and was made Bachelor of Arts, May 26, 1638.
- ii Philip, matriculated at Oxford, June 28, 1616, when he was twenty years of age. He received the degree, Bachelor of Arts, April 24, 1619. In 1645 he was Rector of St. Michal's Cornhill and of Acton Middlesex in 1645. He resided for some time at Hayes near Slinford, County Sussex and later emigrated to Arnheim, Holland and returned to England in 1840 in company with John Canne. In Oliver Cromwell's time he was a celebrated preacher and there are many interesting notes about him in Henry G. Bohn's edition of Butler's Hudibras. He married Judith, who died in 1680. He died at Brompton, Kensington Parish, September, 1678, and was buried at St. Michael's Cornhill, September 27, 1678. (Lanc-Eng'l Ch. Hist. Vol. II, p. 140; Fenland Notes & Que. Vol. II p. 89, for reference to Philip Nye, "the goodly divine." See also address of George H. Nye at First Nye Reunion, Sandwich, Mass., 1903.)
- iii John, reported to have been "a very lively disposition" which the following taken from the Middlesex Sessions Roll Peace Reg. would tend to confirm: "July 16, 12 James I (1614) John Nye brought in by warrant for abusing Sir William Smith at Hammersmith and beatinge Richard Bushe verye square upon the head; said John Nye to put in surities for his good behavior and appear at next session of the Peace." He married and had children who resided in Middlesex.

iv Thomas, our ancestor.

THOMAS NYE, son of Thomas and Katherine (Poulsden) Nye of Bidlenden, County Kent, was a haberdasher. On June 10, 1619, he married for his second wife Agnes Rye. The name of his first wife who had died is not known. His second wife, whose age is given as thirty-nine, was of the same Parish and was the widow of Henry Rye. (Marriage Licenses, Archbishop of Canterbury Court). July 4, 1637, he granted to his youngest son Thomas four acres of land in Bidlenden together with a building part of a fold-course and stated in the document "my oldest son Benjamin having gone to New England." (Clerk of the Peace Rolls).

Their children were:

- i Benjamin, born May 4, 1620; married Katharine Tupper and settled in Sandwich, Mass.
- ii Thomas, born Sept. 16, 1623; married Margaret Webster and left descendants in Bidlenden. (St. Peter, Cornhill, Parish Register).

Benjamin Nye.

1—BENJAMIN NYE, son of Thomas and Agnes Nye, was born at Bidlenden Kent, England, May 4, 1620.

He came in the "Abigail" to Lynn, Mass., in 1635, with Edmund Freeman's Company.

(Dennis Geere of Saugus, who came in the "Abigail," in his will, dated December 10, 1635, leaves 30 shillings to Benjamin Nye.)

Rev. Thomas Tupper was also a passenger on the "Abigail." In 1637 he removed to Sandwich, Mass., where October 19, 1640, his daughter Katherine and Benjamin Nye were married.

The following extracts from the town and colony records give the history of Benjamin Nye.

In 1643 the name of Benjamin Nye appears in the list of those able to bear arms.

In 1650 he complained of Thomas Dexter, Jr., for trespass for damages to the amount of ten pounds and was awarded by the jury the sum of fifteen shillings.

In 1654 his name appears on a list of those contributing toward building a mill.

March 29, 1655, his name is on the subscription list for building a meeting house.

In 1655 he was supervisor of highways.

July 17, 1657, he engages to pay fifteen shillings toward the minister's salary yearly, and in the same year takes the oath of fidelity.

May 18, 1658, he was chosen Grand-juryman.

In 1659 he made a payment of five shillings for the meeting house.

In 1660 he complained against William Newland in an action of defamation, to the damage of fifty pounds, by testifying in court that a message was brought or sent to him from Elizabeth Freeman "affearming that Jacob Burgis was drawne to testify that which he did consarning Barlow through Feare, by Benjamin Nyes threatening him, in case hee would atend Barlow in his ocations against the Quakers, and giue the psent euidence, hee should not haue his daughter to wife." The jury found for the plaintiff fifty shillings, or that the defendant bring forth the informer, and the cost of the suit.

In 1661 he was chosen Constable and 1662 he was on the jury. In 1664 he served on a coroner's jury on Thomas Fitch. In 1665 he was on a committee to settle a road dispute between George Allen and R. Chadwell.

May 15, 1668, he was again chosen Grand-juryman.

On March 18, 1669, the town voted to lay out twelve acres of land to him because he built the mill at the little pond.

September 13, 1669, the town "granted Ben Nie 8 acres of land adjoining his six acres adjoining to his meadow by the little river."

June 13, 1671, he was on a committee to look after the uplands and meadows which are the town's commons.

In 1673, he was constable.

March 31, 1674, voted a committee take a deed of Thomas Dexter for the town's land and ordered Benjamin Nye, the collector, to pay the said Thomas Dexter four pounds for it.

On February 23, 1675, a list of names was recorded of those having a just right and interest in the town's privileges—the list contains the names of Benjamin Nie and John Nye

August 8, 1675, it was voted that Benj. Nye have permission to build a fulling mill upon Spring Hill River, providing it does not damnifie the county road, and to keep up a mill in said place as long as he keeps a fulling mill in the same place. (The history of Barnstable County states "at Spring Hill, just west from East Sandwich the remains of the old Benjamin Nye saw mill are still extant in the brook.”)

A receipt appointed to be recorded :

3—JOHN NYE (Benjamin¹). His date of birth is not given on the town records. In 1678 took the oath of fidelity and served on the Grand-jury the same year. With his brother, Ebenezer, he purchased one hundred acres of land in the town of Falmouth and in 1689 they were granted two hundred acres more.

At a town meeting May 10, 1694, he was appointed on a committee to "Erect two cottages on the plain remote about the town most convenient for shepherds to dwell in."

September 19, 1695, he and William Bassett were appointed a committee "to provide a suitable person to keep school in our town for one year, for the sum of ten pounds, for his encouragement or recompense, either master or mistress."

He married Esther Shed. Some of the descendants have the name as "Dasther." He died in 1722.

He was installed as pastor of the church in Claremont in 1821 and served till 1828. After he had resigned as pastor it is stated that charges were preferred against him as an unworthy member of the church. At the trial of the case he was called on for any answer he might make. He stated that he had listened attentively to the proceedings and it had occurred to him that the object of the trial was to have him turned out of the church but that before this could be accomplished it would first be necessary for him to join the church as he was not then nor had been a member.

He was an attractive speaker and stood high in Masonry. In 1825 he was Representative, and State Senator in 1827. He served as Postmaster from 1829 to 1841 when he resigned and went to Port Madison, Iowa, where he died April 1, 1843.

When sixteen years of age he went to New Bedford, Mass., where he entered the apprenticeship of Prince Weeks, a master builder. After finishing his apprenticeship he worked at organ building in the employ of a Boston firm. Later he shipped as a carpenter on an East India merchantman.

From India he went to California when the gold fever was at its height. He crossed the Isthmus of Panama on foot, arriving in San Francisco soon after the fire. Mr. Nye erected some of the first brick structures in San Francisco, some of which are still standing.

Mr. Nye returned to New Bedford in 1855 and engaged in various mercantile pursuits until the beginning of the Civil War, when he joined the army in Virginia as a sutler of the Massachusetts cavalry. He participated in the famous march from Fredericksburg to Gettysburg and was with the advance guard which entered Richmond April 5, 1865. His regiment first raised the flag on the capitol building. For many days he was the only tradesman on the streets of Richmond. His regiment was mustered out in November 1865. Mr. Nye is the largest manufacturer of oils for watches, clocks, sewing machines, etc., in the world, and his large factories are located on Fish Island, New Bedford. Mr. Nye commenced to manufacture oil in Fairhaven on a small scale in 1844, but later moved to New Bedford. His success has been remarkable. He early evinced a desire to go to sea and as a boy was unusually enterprising and courageous. He entered the Naval Academy from his native district in 1866, graduating in 1870. His first service was on the North Atlantic Station, soon after going to Europe on the "Supply" with stores for the French.

While attached to the "Kansas" he was engaged for some time in the canal survey in Nicaragua, and also on the coast survey for nearly three years. In this period he, together with Lieutenant Hunsicker, rescued Lieutenant Franklin from drowning, off the coast of Massachusetts. While in Japan he made an extended walking tour, visiting many places, never before visited by any white person, among which was an ascension of the volcano Fusi-yama. Soon after his arrival on the "Pacific Station" he was offered the post of naval Attache by the late Mr. Phelps, and had been there nearly a year at the time of his death. He spoke, read and wrote the Japanese and Spanish languages and also had some knowledge of French and German. In the death of Lieutenant Nye the service lost one of its most accomplished officers and one greatly beloved. He was detailed by the United States Government to bring the remains of Minister Phelps to this country, but his distinguished career was cut short by his untimely death at Lima, Peru, July 30, 1885.

Under his nom de plume of "Bill Nye" he is known the world over. According to his own story, when he was about two years of age, he took his parents by the hand and led them to the West. They went to Wisconsin in 1853 and settled on a farm in St. Croix County, near River Falls, where Edgar, as the family called him, grew to manhood. He was educated in the common schools and at the Academy at River Falls, worked on the farm, taught school a few years and studied law.

In the spring of 1876 he went into Wyoming Territory, having no financial resources whatever, and located in Larimee City, where he took a position on the Larimee City Daily Sentinel, a paper then published by Mr. Hayford. He soon acquired pronounced local fame which rapidly spread throughout the West. He was a regular contributor for some time to the Denver Sunday Tribune, and in the meantime practiced law somewhat, and held the position of Municipal Judge. He was also for a time Postmaster at Larimee City. He later organized a newspaper Company known as the Boomerang Company, and started the Larimee City Daily Boomerang, which for some time, until his health failed was widely copied throughout the United States. In the later part of 1879 or 1880 he met with a sickness which finally led to his severing his connection with the Boomerang. He suffered for a long time after, the effects of Cerebro-Spinal Meningitis, and found it necessary to have a change of climate and occupation. He never recovered from the severe strain of this continued nervous difficulty, arising, no doubt, largely from overwork and nervous and mental strain. About 1881 or 1882 he returned to Wisconsin and bought a small home at Hudson, St. Croix County, and resided there with his family, engaging his services to the New York World for a time as a weekly contributor, and shortly after engaging upon a salary, he removed his family to New York City and bought a fine home at Staten Island. He spent two or three winters in the South, and finally bought a place at what is called Buck Shoals, near Asheville, North Carolina. He built a fine residence there in which the family lived at the time of his death.

In addition to a large amount of literary work and his labors on the "World" he lectured in all parts of the United States, and was throughout the Fall and Winter of the last four or five years of his life constantly on the lecture platform. He married at Larimee City, March 7, 1877, Miss Clara Frances Smith. She died in the fall of 1906. He died on February 22, 1896, at his home at Buck Shoals, North Carolina, after a short illness finally culminating in a paralytic stroke. He was buried in the Episcopal churchyard at Fletcher, N. C., five miles from Buck Shoals.

THE NYE FAMILY OF AMERICA ASSOCIATION.

For the benefit of those who have not become acquainted with the Nye Family of America Association, or who have been unable to attend its meetings or to obtain copies of the proceedings, a short account of the organization, purpose and history of the Association is here given.

In August, 1902, there gathered in Sandwich, Mass., a little group of Nyes whose earnest wish was to have a reunion of the family. Among them was one of four score years, Charles H. Nye of Hyannis, who had long labored for this purpose and whose most earnest desire was that the descendants of Benjamin Nye, scattered as they are from the Golden Gate on the West to the Pine Tree State on the East, might gather together in the ancestral home town on Cape Cod.

In accordance with this wish Mrs. Henry Alden Belcher invited a number of the descendants of Benjamin Nye to meet at her residence in Sandwich to consult upon the feasibility of holding a reunion of the family the next year and to form a temporary organization for that purpose. In response to this invitation nine of the Cape Cod Nyes met with Mrs. Belcher. At that time a temporary organization of the Nye Family was formed for the purpose of organizing a national association, the object of which should be to collect family history, promote family pride and cultivate a closer bond of friendship among the kindred.

The following officers were elected to take charge of the temporary organization: Mr. William L. Nye, Sandwich, Mass., President; Mrs. Henry Alden Belcher, Randolph, Mass., Secretary and Treasurer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Mr. Charles H. Nye, Hyannis, Mass.
Mr. William F. Nye, Fairhaven, Mass.
Mr. Everett I. Nye, Wellfleet, Mass.
Mr. Levi S. Nye, Sandwich, Mass.
Hon. William A. Nye, Bourne, Mass.
Mr. David D. Nye, Cataumet, Mass.
Mr. James L. Wesson, Boston, Mass.
Mr. William P. Nye, Providence, R. I.
Mr. George H. Nye, Auburn, N. Y.
Mrs. William L. Nye, Sandwich, Mass.
Miss Mary E. Nye, Sandwich, Mass.
Mrs. S. Curtis Smith, Newton, Mass.

This temporary organization voted to have a reunion to which a general invitation might be extended to the Nyes scattered throughout the country in the hopes that such a reunion would be largely attended and the temporary organization be made a permanent association.

In November, 1902, circulars were sent out to the Nyes all over America informing them of the action taken by this little group of Nyes down on Cape Cod and asking them for their co-operation in making the first reunion of the Nye Family a grand success. After this other meetings were held and in June a second circular was sent out inviting all descendants of Benjamin Nye to gather at Sandwich, Mass., August 5, 6 and 7, 1903, to celebrate the first reunion of the family. In response to this invitation about three hundred of the Nyes gathered at Sandwich, Mass., on August 5, 1903, and inaugurated the first reunion of the Nye Family of America. The program consisted of historical addresses and papers bearing upon family matters by prominent members of the family. There were short addresses and delightful music. There were two receptions and a concert at the Casino. Visits were made to many historical spots in and about the town.

At this reunion a committee was appointed to whom was referred the matter of a permanent organization of an Association of the Nye Family. The following recommendations made by this committee were adopted:

"First. That a permanent association be organized to be known as 'The Nye Family of America.'

"Second. That any descendant of Benjamin Nye, who settled in Sandwich in 1637, and his or her husband, wife, widow or widower, may become a member of said association on the payment of a fee of one dollar, and remain a member of said association on the payment of the annual dues of one dollar per year.

"Third. That the officers of said association shall be a President, a Vice-president, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, a Treasurer and an Executive Committee consisting of ten members and at least one additional member from each state and territory having a membership in said association. (At the reunion in 1906 a Registrar was added to this list of officers.)

"Fourth. That the first officers of said association shall be as follows: William L. Nye of Sandwich, Mass., President; George H. Nye of Auburn, N. Y., Vice-president; Mrs. Henry Alden Belcher of Randolph, Mass., Secretary; Mrs. Annie Nye Smith of Boston, Mass., Treasurer.

"That the Assistant Secretary shall be such person as the Secretary may appoint.

"That the officers of said association shall hold their offices until the close of the next reunion, and all officers hereafter elected shall hold their offices until the close of the next succeeding reunion after their election.

"Fifth. That the first Executive Committee shall be composed of the following named persons:

Charles H. Nye, Hyannis, Mass.
William F. Nye, Fairhaven, Mass.
Everett I. Nye Wellfleet, Mass.
Levi S. Nye, Sandwich, Mass.
David D. Nye, Cataumet, Mass.
Hon. William A. Nye, Bourne, Mass.
James L. Wesson, Boston, Mass.
William P. Nye, Providence, R. I.
Mrs. William L. Nye, Sandwich, Mass.
Mrs. S. Curtis Smith, Newton, Mass.

Miss Mary E. Nye, Sandwich, Mass.
Miss Grace Nye, Milwaukee, Wis.
Dr. Fremont Nye, Westerly, R. I.
James W. Nye, Marietta, Ohio.
Loyal Nye, Binghamton, N. Y.
Hon. Stephen A. Nye, Fairfield, Me.
William Fessenden Jackson, Newark, N. J.

"That the officers of said association shall be ex-officio members of said Executive Committee."

The second reunion of the Nye Family of America was held in Sandwich, Mass., August 17, 18 and 19, 1904. The program was similar to that of the preceding year but many new speakers were obtained and many other members of the Nye Family were present to form the acquaintanceship of others of their kindred.

At the business meeting the following persons were elected as officers of the association for the year: Mr. George H. Nye, Auburn, N. Y., President; Hon. David J. Nye, Elyria, Ohio, Vice-president; Mrs. S. Curtis Smith, Newton, Mass., Secretary; Mrs. Annie Nye Smith, Roxbury, Mass., Treasurer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Mr. William L. Nye, Sandwich, Mass., Chairman.
Mr. Charles H. Nye, Hyannis, Mass.
Mr. William F. Nye, Fairhaven, Mass.
Mr. Everett I. Nye, Wellfleet, Mass.
Mr. James L. Wesson, Boston, Mass.
Mrs. Horace K. Nye, Fairhaven, Mass.
Mr. James W. Nye, Marietta, Ohio.
Mrs. Rowena Nye Cook, Chillicothe, Ohio.
Mr. Harold B. Nye, Cleveland, Ohio.

In 1905 the association made a pilgrimage to Marietta, Ohio, the first settling place of the Nyes in the Northwest Territory. This gave new life to all the members and especially to those from the East, who had come for the first time, many of them, into what had been to them the frontier of the American civilization. The proceedings at this meeting though similar to those of the others in their number of historical papers were delightfully interspersed with visits to historical spots in and about Marietta, and by little teas, luncheon parties and receptions given by the Nyes and the citizens of the Ohio city.

At this reunion officers were elected as follows: Hon. David J. Nye, Elyria, Ohio, President; Mr. James L. Wesson, Boston, Mass., Vice-president; Mrs. S. Curtis Smith, Newton, Mass., Secretary; Mrs. Annie Nye Smith, Roxbury, Mass., Treasurer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Mr. William L. Nye, Sandwich, Mass., Chairman.
Mr. Charles F. Nye, Hyannis, Mass.
Mr. William F. Nye, Fairhaven, Mass.
Mrs. Henry A. Belcher, Randolph, Mass.
Mr. James W. Nye, Marietta, Ohio.
Mr. Everett I. Nye, Wellfleet, Mass.
Mr. John W. Nye, Manchester, N. H.
Mrs. J. R. Holway, Sandwich, Mass.
Mr. Theodore D. Dale, Montclair, N. J.
Mr. Harold B. Nye, Cleveland, Ohio.

The fourth reunion was held at Sandwich, Mass., August 8, 9, 10, 1906. This reunion was of great interest to all members of the family. Many new faces were seen among the kindred, who have attended each annual gathering. Beside the literary program the family were entertained by a reception at Spring Hill, the home of Benjamin Nye, the First, by a boat carnival on the little lake, for which the citizens of Sandwich are noted, and by an all day pilgrimage to Plymouth, the landing place of the pilgrims. The closing exercises were held in the Casino and consisted of a promenade concert and farewell reception and ball.

The officers elected at this time were: Hon. David J. Nye, Elyria, Ohio, President; Mr. James L. Wesson, Boston, Mass., Vice-president; Mrs. S. Curtis Smith, Newton, Mass., Secretary; Mrs. Annie Nye Smith, Littleton Common, Mass., Treasurer; Mr. Robert W. Thompson, Middletown, Conn., Registrar.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Mr. William L. Nye, Sandwich, Mass., Chairman.
Mr. Charles H. Nye, Hyannis, Mass.

Mr. William F. Nye, Fairhaven, Mass.
Mrs. Henry A. Belcher, Randolph, Mass.
Mr. Everett I. Nye, Wellfleet, Mass.
Mrs. Jerome R. Holway, Sandwich, Mass.
Mr. George H. Nye, Auburn, N. Y.
Rev. Elmer I. Nye, Georgia, Vt.
Miss Abbie F. Nye, Sandwich, Mass.
Mr. James W. Nye, Marietta, Ohio.

The proceedings of each of these reunions have been published in pamphlet form and include all the addresses in full and accounts of each of the meetings and the social diversions of the gathering. They may be obtained from the secretary at very small cost. The officers of the association are glad at all times to give any information concerning the association or its meetings, or answer any inquiries from members of the family on all subjects that they can.

One may become a member of the association at any time upon the payment to the treasurer of the membership fee and may continue a member by paying the annual dues.

Explanatory Note.

The arrangement of names and numbers attempted in this book is as follows:

Every person who is a Nye by birth is given a number and if the head of a family concerning whom more is written, an asterisk (*) is placed before the number. This asterisk refers to the numbers in black-faced type in the following generation. By referring to that number a fuller account of the person may be found including a list of his children. The children of those who have married outside of the family are referred to by the same number as the Nye from whom they are descended. In like manner those who have married into the family are referred to in the index by the same number as the last Nye after whom their name appears.

To trace one's line from the present time back to Benjamin¹ it is necessary to find one's number in the index and then by referring to the account of his father, if he is a Nye, there will be found the name and number of his father, grandfather, great grandfather and so of each ancestor back to Benjamin.¹ A reference to the corresponding numbers in the black-faced type will disclose a more detailed account of each of these ancestors.

For instance, in the index of Nyes is found the name "Thomas 348." Looking back into the text we find in the black-faced type "348—Thomas Nye (Jonathan,¹¹² Jonathan,²⁰ Jonathan,⁵ Benjamin¹)." The names and numbers in the parenthesis following Thomas Nye are the names and numbers of his ancestors. "Jonathan¹¹²" being his father, "Jonathan²⁰" his grandfather and so on. In the list of the children of Thomas will be found "*1006 Curtis Freeman" Now by referring to the number 1006 in black-faced type a fuller account of Curtis Freeman Nye and his children will be found.

It is intended that these indexes shall contain all the names which appear in the text.

ONE of the objects of the Nye Family of America Association is to "collect family history" and in this the association is desirous of the hearty co-operation of all the Nyes. To that end these pages have been inserted in the hope that the present and future generations may here keep the record of their immediate family.
